Touches of Sweet Harmony and workshop

World renowned vocal ensemble, Stile Antico visit Music@Malling to perform a programme of music set to texts by William Shakespeare.

Touches of Sweet Harmony includes settings ancient and modern. The concert includes the European premiere of Judith Bingham - Does the moon shine? and also features the West Malling Community Choir. Stile Antico is firmly established as one of the world's most accomplished and innovative vocal ensembles. Working without a conductor, its twelve members have thrilled audiences throughout Europe and North America with their fresh, vibrant and moving performances of Renaissance polyphony. Its bestselling recordings on the Harmonia Mundi label have earned accolades including the Gramophone Award for Early Music, the Diapason d'or de l'année, the Edison Klassiek Award and the Preis der deutschen Schallplattenkritik, and have twice received Grammy® nominations.

Members of the ensemble will be giving a workshop for local singers prior to their concert on 30th September 2016 at 5pm. The cost of the workshop is £10 which includes a ticket for the evening performance.
